June Music Newsletter

Dear Parishioners,

I am very pleased with our final few choral Sundays in June. On the 4th, we were blessed with the Black Swan Classic Jazz Band, and on the 11th and 18th we celebrated Trinity Sunday and Graduation + Fathers' Day with great gusto. I am so proud of the choir for their work this year. I have always been told that it is fun to work hard and to be good. And yet, our ministry is more than that – we strive not to impress, but to inspire. May the Holy Spirit continue to work through these singers and organists in the years to come.

If you haven't done so already, I highly encourage you to drop a few hymn suggestions into the suggestion box outside the main office. We're collecting hymn suggestions from the congregation for the month of August. Remember, our hymnody is the bread and butter of our music ministry at Good Sam – and each and every one of us participates in it. It is such a beautiful tradition we carry, and I always look forward to hearing your favorites. ☺

Music Lesson: Ralph Vaughan Williams is one of the greatest English composers of the 20th century. His first name is pronounced ('rafe). That's a tough one to miss on a music history presentation...

Best,
